

Native American Film Festival and Feast

Monday, February 16, 11:00AM - 6:00PM
Native American Student & Community Center
710 SW Jackson Street in Portland, Oregon

11:00AM - 1:00PM Showing films in Chief Joseph and Multnomah.

1:00PM - 2:00PM Free feast and discussion with independent Native filmmakers in Gathering Area.

2:00PM - 6:00PM Showing films in Chief Joseph and Multnomah.

This event is open to the public with a free feast and features a variety of indigenous films. The film schedule is flexible based on audience interaction and includes the following selection:

Smoke Signals, Skins, Powwow Highway, Edge of America, Business of Fancy Dancing, Stryker, Dreamkeeper, Dance Me Outside, Dead Man, Doeboy, Four Sheets to the Wind, Christmas in the Clouds, Rabbit Proof Fence, Fast Runner, Whale Rider, Once Were Warriors, Honey Moccasin, Harold and Orange, Heater

Also featuring a room of short films by independent filmmakers including Chris Francisco, Myron A. Lameman, and Cowboy Smithx with an open invitation to all Native filmmakers to bring their own films to show.

Organized by Grace L. Dillon
(dillong@pdx.edu), Native American Studies
& University Studies.

Co-sponsored by United Indian Students in Higher Education & University Studies (Diversity).