

Preview of Prep Check 4.

[2.5 points each]

1. Type III sedimentation results from which one of the following phenomena?
2. Which of the following shapes are used most commonly for Type III sedimentation in a continuous flow clarifier?
3. True or False: The gravity flux of solids in Type III sedimentation increases monotonically with increasing solids concentration.
4. Weirs usually have V-notches for which two of the following reasons: