

Prep Check 10.

[2.5 pts each]

1. The primary agents of any biological wastewater treatment process are: (choose one)

2. Graywater is defined as:

3. Which of the following named equations describes the rate of substrate removal as a function of substrate concentration?

4. The equation from Question 3 above reduces to a first-order formulation under what conditions?